An Exchanged Life

“I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find.” Romans 7:18

It’s not good enough to simply recognize your sin and confess it. It’s not good enough to desperately desire a godly life. It isn’t good enough to work hard to change how you think or act. Nothing within us can defeat sin. We can’t change our lives—but we can exchange our lives: when Christ lives within us, we die to sin and become alive to righteousness. The transformation of our character that is impossible for us is possible with God.

Then, transformed by God and no longer gripped by sin, we are free to follow Christ in the power of the Holy Spirit. And only with His guidance and empowering can we live the Christian life. The Holy Spirit, for instance, elevates our self-centered prayers and leads us to ask for the very things God wants to accomplish in our lives, in the lives of those for whom we’re praying, and in the world around us.

So now that you’re following Christ, rely on His Spirit to make you alive to righteousness and to guide your prayers so you can serve Him well.

The Prayer and Study Calendar is published monthly as a ministry of Calvary Chapel Chino Valley. The calendar is also accessible on our website. You may go to the CCCV home page and click on the Prayer Calendar.

Calvary Chapel Chino Valley Prayer & Study Calendar

For the month of July
2010

Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be known to God; and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

Philippians 4:6-7
